

AGENCY WARS VIII

How you can participate in Agency Wars VIII: Fight. Sponsor. Attend.

So you think you wanna be a Fighter? Here's what you need to do to make it:

- 1. Show up for Recruitment Night on Tuesday, September 4th 2018, 7:00 PM at Clancy's Boxing Academy. Meet the coaches and trainers. Fill out our questionnaire, get assigned a number, have your picture taken. All ages, weight-classes, men and women are welcome to try out.
- 2. The following day show up for the beginning of our 2-week Evaluation Boot Camp. Over the course of 2-weeks you will be evaluated by our coaches and trainers (strength and conditioning, boxing) during sessions in the gym and on the hills at Riverdale Park.
- 3. Final Team Selections will be made on Monday, September 17th. Finalists will be chosen based on weight and age match-ups (must be no more than 10 years and 10 pounds apart), rivalry potential, general fitness, boxing IQ, "heart" and desire. All match-ups are approved by our Head Trainer, Rico Mancini, Team Captains, and by Boxing Ontario, the sanctioning body. Finalists will be informed by email. 10 weeks of team training will start immediately thereafter.
- 4. Start Training. The following 10-weeks will be spent training for your fight—boxing basics, strength and conditioning, nutrition. Boxers are trained in two teams—Red and Blue—by elite Olympic and professional boxers and trainers. As a professional fighter, to get this kind of training you'd have to pay over $10,000! All trainers must use Agency Wars trainers. No outside trainers are permitted. All boxing training will be held exclusively at Clancy's Boxing Academy. Boxers are expected to commit to the training schedule. Before sparring can begin, boxers are expected to pass medicals with their doctor and receive Amateur credentials from Boxing Ontario. Gloves and gear will be provided.
- 5. Raise $1,000 for the Movember Foundation. Each boxer is required to raise $1,000 for the charity. Similar to fun-runs and other charitable events, an online "Donor Page", linked to the AWWIII website, will be created so that co-workers, friends and family can find their fighter's name, open their fighter's personal page, and donate electronically in support of their fighter. The Donor Page will show how much the fighter has raised towards their goal.
- 6. Sell a table. Each fighter is required to sell 1 table ($3,000 – 50% due upon selection. Gets you seating for 10). Should be easy. Your company, your friends, and your family will definitely want to see you duke it out in the ring. Most advertising, marketing, or media companies can write it off as a marketing expense.

You don't have to be a fighter to play a big part in the event. Be a sponsor.

Why not sponsor a great cause and an exciting event? We can create a sponsorship package for any size budget or objective. Or do your part by buying a bunch of tickets and attending the most talked about event in the industry.
